

U.S. DOES NOT WANT ALIENS FROM CANADA

▲ Alien enemies who intend to slide across the line to the United States are apt to find the going somewhat rougher than they are figuring on for the American immigration authorities are getting particular as to whom they allow to enter their country. On Thursday evening a squad of eleven registered aliens who had broken their parole and crossed the line were gathered in by the United States officials and sent back to Emerson where they were taken in charge by the local military. They are being sent to the detention camp here.
