

SEVENTY ITALIANS TO LEAVE SOO FOR FRONT WEDNESDAY

Consular Agent Wm. Grassi
Says They are all Anxious to Get on Firing Line

Mr. William Grassi, local Royal Italian Consular agent, said today that he expected that the Italian reservists who have reported here would leave next Wednesday to embark for Italy, though he had not yet received definite instructions.

Mr. Grassi said that he had now between sixty-five and seventy on his list, and that they were all anxious to get back to Italy.
