

Caught German With Explosives.

Kingston, Ont., July 28.—Constables have rounded up a German who had a valise filled with explosives. He had been hiding in the cellar of a vacant house near the large local gas tank. It is believed that he was plotting to blow up the works. He was interned.