

Superintendent Clarke was at the Internment Camp again on Tuesday and reports great progress being made with the work, and states that the boys have made a fine job of the clearing of their camping grounds, which have been nicely picked off in the lines with rocks and other decorations.