Then

Not only is the Soo sending soldiers to the training camps of the Canadian Militia but within a short time the citizens will see the departure of 100 reservists of the Italian army to Italy for service at the front.

At the present time M. Wm. Grassi, the Royal Italian Consular Agent, is securing all the men he can for the Italian Army. So far his efforts have resulted in the enlistment of some 60 men residing in the Soo, and some 25 outsiders. His orders calls for 100 men, whom he expects to have by Aug. 20. The total quota will leave here on September 1 and will sail from New York on Sept 3. Mr. Grassi is well pleased with the enthusiasm which the Italians are showing. The men are quite eager to get into the fray.
