

14,671 Interned—Since the alien registration office opened on Colony street shortly after the war was declared, 14,671 unnaturalized Germans, Austrians and Turks have registered as enemies of the allies. Four who attempted to get across the line yesterday were interned at Brandon but today there were no others added to the camp.