

FOREIGNERS HAD A LIVELY FIGHT THRU RACIAL FEELING

Two Italians Set Upon and Stabbed by Ten Turks at Toronto

(C. P. Special to Sault Daily Star).
Toronto, Sept. 2.—Racial feeling led to a quarrel last night among fore-igners living near the west end of St.
Clair avenue.

Two Italians, Charles Lambo, and Paulo Verillis, were set upon and stabbed by ten others, who claim to be Greeks but who the police assert are really Turks.

Lambo was stabbed near his heart and is in a dangerous condition. All the ten assailants were later arrested.
