

SOLDIER ACCIDENTALLY SHOT.

While hunting rabbits with a comrade Monday afternoon, Private George Edgecomb, aged 25 years, a member of the military guard at the alien enemy internment camp at Spirit Lake, was shot in the back when his comrade's weapon was accidentally discharged. The soldier was brought to the General Hospital yesterday. The doctors stated last night that his condition is not dangerous.