

Several hundred of the interned aliens from the internment camp paraded down town this morning, marching along Princess avenue. It is expected that before long another detachment of the men will be sent out to public works. Already there are a hundred working on the new motor road at Revelstoke, B.C.