

NO BULGARIANS HERE

Despite efforts that have been made to locate unnaturalized Bulgarians in Brandon, none have been found and consequently none have registered as alien enemies. It is not believed that the number of these people in the city is at all considerable, and of the few there are, most are British subjects.