Authorities Instructed to Watch for Officers Who Broke Paroll

The following telegram, received by Inspector Ross, deputy in charge of the immigration department, explains itself:

"Six German warrant officers of the Kron Prinz Wilhelm, interned at Norfolk, have broken parole and probably escaped on the yacht Eclipse, official number 135,504, 23 tons. Last account scow rigged, painted white, length 48 feet, beam 17 feet, draft 6 feet. Report any information."

The telegram was received from the United States Navy department concerning the men who escaped from the interned German cruiser about a week ago and who it is believed did not put to sea.
