

TO COMMAND NEW BATTALION

The Globe (1844-1936); Nov 4, 1915; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail

pg. 3

TO COMMAND NEW BATTALION.

Kingston, Nov. 3.—(Special.)—The Minister of Militia has appointed Lieut.-Col. O. M. H. Fee of Lindsay, who has been in command of the Fort Henry Internment camp since last July to command a battalion to be raised in Haliburton and Victoria. Col. Fee was in command of the 69th Battalion during its mobilization.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.