

LIEUT.COL. RIDGWAY WILSON HERE.

Lieut.- Col. Ridgway Wilson, superintendent of military internment camps, was in Vancouver this morning en route to Victoria. Col. Wilson reports that about half the prisoners from the Revelstoke camp have now been transferred to Ottertail. He states that the work of the camps, of which there are some half dozen in British Columbia, is proceeding smoothly and that the prisoners are giving very little trouble.