

MAY SHOOT AUSTRIAN HELD BY MILITARY AUTHORITIES

If David Neiman, a subject of Austria, arrested by the military authorities on a charge of treason, is found guilty he may be shot. The authorities have been looking for him for more than a week and managed to locate him last night.

He is charged with trading with three subjects of the Emperor of Austria and aiding "these enemies of His Majesty the King of Great Britain to leave the domains of the king that they might return to the country of the enemy and fight against Canada."

In the information Neiman is charged with assisting three aliens to leave the country via the United States.