

ORDERED ENTERED.

By Canadian Press.

Toronto, Dec. 29.—Paul Jockel, a young German clerk, who escaped from an internment camp and then obtained a position in a munition factory in Hamilton, was ordered to be interned by Chief of Police Grasett today, till the end of the war. He will go either to Kapuskasing camp or Fort Henry. He had been sent down in Hamilton for 18 months for forgery.