

Austrian Clergyman Leaves.

Sarnia, Feb. 10.—Rev. Armin Holzer, an Austrian Jew, who has been pastor of the Baptist Church here for a year, and who was brought before an Immigration Board to determine his sentiments in regard to the war, left on the last ferry for the United States. According to his wife, he has gone to resume his work with the foreigners in the Pittsburg district. While under oath yesterday afternoon, it is said, he gave his word that he would not leave.
