

Officers and Men Separate.

Kingston, March 4.—It is learned that the German Government is asking that Canada provide a separate internment* camp for German army officers owing to the fact that in Germany the officers of the allied armies are put into separate camps. There are fifteen ex-German officers in ~~Fort Henry~~ and possibly a couple of hundred all told in Canadian camps.