

CHINAMAN IS FINED FOR VIOLATING LAW

Convicted in Burnaby Court on Four Charges of Infractions of Sanitary Regulations.

EDMONDS, March 13.—A Burnaby Chinaman named Ah Sam paid $100 and costs in Edmonds police court on Saturday when he was convicted on no less than four separate charges of infractions of the sanitary regulations in regard to keeping and slaughtering hogs in the municipality. He was fined $25 and costs in each case. The accused had a number of convictions of a similiar nature against him.

Internment for Lowe.

Because his answers to officers of the intelligence department were distinctly unsatisfactory, Gustave Lowe, the German who was caught prowling in the vicinity of a munition plant recently, will be interned until the end of the war. He was examined on Saturday and was considered an excellent subject for the big internment camp at Vernon. Lowe says he came from Seattle.

Jonah Was Insistent.

Jonah Lundin, who is alleged to have demanded payment of a debt from behind the business end of a revolver, will face the charge in Burnaby police court today. F. Loop is the complainant and he declares that Lundin demanded his money and when it was not promptly forthcoming produced the gun to add weight to his entreaties.

Civilian Riflemen Shoot.

The highest scores for the week at the Burnaby miniature rifle range were as follows: N. Morrison, 97; W. H. Moore, 94; R. Mosely, 94; F. Hughes, 90; J. B. Charlton, 88; Capt. Dick, 88; H. W. Goodwin, 88; C. Murray, 79; E. C. Goodwin, 74; J. Gordon, 92; A. Smith, 84; F. B. Emery, 82.