

TREASON CASE ON TODAY

The case of the four Hungarians who are charged with treason by violating the law against sending money to an enemy country, is being heard today in Welland. Messrs. Hunt and Donahue of the immigration department are attending the trial as witnesses, as is also Chief Mains of the provincial police. The four men are from Thorold and are Todor Mehil, George Magureson, J. Haban, Vasele Spermezon.