

WILL NOT GET THE CHANCE

*The Globe (1844-1936); Mar 23, 1916; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail
pg. 5*

WILL NOT GET THE CHANCE.

Berlin, Ont., March 22.—(Special.)

—Another young German will be sent to the internment camp as a result of pro-German utterances made to one of the recruiting officers. Eric Zeg, aged twenty years, who was employed in one of the local industries when asked to don the khaki replied that if he had the chance he would fight for Germany. He came here from that country two years ago.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.