

Teacher and Pastor, Accused as Enemies, In Court Wednesday

Miss Margaret Fredericks, who is charged by military authorities with a breach of the Defense of the Realm act, was a teacher at the Maitland school, about five miles from Tenby, Man., according to information given The Tribune today. At the time of her arrest authorities gave the incorrect report that she was a teacher at Tenby.

Miss Fredericks and Rev. Phillipow Basylian, pastor of St. Nicholas. Ruthenian church, Winnipeg, who is accused of sedition, are to appear in provincial police court Wednesday:
