

No Germans For Him.

Do you want one of the prisoners-of-war now confined to Fort Henry to help do the work on your farm?" was the question asked a Frontenac farmer on Wednesday morning.

"Not on your life. I would not trust a German as far as I could throw a stone," was the reply the farmer made to a Whig reporter.