

SOUNDS FAMILIAR.

BRACEBRIDGE, Ont., April 15.—Ten Austrians from a New Ontario internment camp arrived here at 3 a.m. to work in a tannery. Soon after their arrival the place where they lodged was found on fire and it burned up. Other employees at the tannery went on strike and were joined by employees at another tannery. Finally the Austrians were escorted to the station by the police and left on the 10 a.m. train for Acton.
