

MORE INTERNED PRISONERS

Three hundred and fifty interned German prisoners from Petawawa passed through North Bay Monday night to the camps on the transcontinental railway. They will be employed in railway construction and clearing of farm lands. The prisoners were accompanied by a strong guard of soldiers.