

The Hanover Racing Club has withdrawn the notice which ordained the jockeys who were not natives of Germany, Austria-Hungary, Turkey or Bulgaria would have to carry five pounds extra when riding for stables other than those which had first call on their services. In other words, jockeys of American birth, like Archibald and Korb, are not to be penalized for being better jockeys than the Germans.