

REPORT EXAGGERATED.

Brigadier-General Logie, who has been investigating the outbreak of interned aliens at Kapuskasing camp, returned to Toronto Thursday. He stated that the reports of the riot had been exaggerated. Only four men were wounded, he said, and their wounds were comparatively slight. The camp is now quiet.