

Another party of Austrians, thirty in number, are on their way to Spirit Lake, Que., for internment during the war. This is a reminder that citizens of enemy lands residing in Canada are under surveillance, a fact which some persons fail to realize. Hundreds of the enemy aliens have been interned for various causes, and hundreds of others have to report themselves periodically. There is no laxity in the matter, for it is a fact that much money is being expended in the important work, which is in charge of numerous capable officials.
