

WILD PROBE ESCAPES: Col. Hemming to Hold Inquiry Into Fort Henry Camp Affairs

Special Despatch to The Globe

The Globe (1844-1936); Jul 6, 1916; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail

pg. 2

WILL PROBE ESCAPES.

Col. Hemming to Hold Inquiry Into Fort Henry Camp Affairs.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Kingston, July 5.—Col. T. D. R. Hemming will hold a court of inquiry into the escape of three Germans from Fort Henry internment camp. Privileges given prisoners are being curtailed, and there will be no more trustees at this camp.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.