

THAT ESCAPE FROM THE FORT

Board of Enquiry is Unearthing
Some Strange Things.

The Board of Enquiry, which is investigating the escape of three German war prisoners from Fort Henry, is still sitting, and it will probably be three or four days before it finishes the investigation. It is understood that some strange things are coming to light.

There is no word as to the whereabouts of the men who escaped.