

The next motor boat given to Fort Henry Germans to repair should have a plug in the bottom which would drop out after a mile had been covered.

---

That old Portsmouth Philosopher suggests that the town council give the Germans in Fort Henry a trip to the Thousand Islands and Ogdensburg, with a few hours' stop at the latter Yankee port so they could disperse.