

Twenty-nine Austrians came down on the Huronic from Fort William this morning to work in the Steel Plant. Mr. Meratchnik, Police court interpreter, who is in charge of the men, expects an equal number from the internment camps at Kaspuskasing.