

FUGITIVE HUN KILLED.

Three Men Who Escaped at Amhurst, N. S., Retaken, Fourth Killed.

Amherst, N. S., Aug. 26.—Three of the four German prisoners, who escaped from the ~~internment camp~~ on Wednesday, have been recaptured, and one, who refused to halt when ordered to do so by a guard, was shot dead. The quartet belonged to the crew of the German steamer Kaiser Wilhelm, and have been the cause of considerable trouble at the camp.
