

"TRIED TO AID FOE," FACES MAN AND WOMAN

No Election or Plea Is Made,
But Bail Is Granted
by Magistrate.

lawful — Police Court.

That Toney Kanopka and his wife Helen Kanopka, Austrians, had aided or attempted to aid the enemy by the despatching of money was the charge laid against them by Col. Denison in the Police Court to-day.

The man is a munition worker.

No election or plea was made to-day and the case stands a remand for a week. Bail was granted. Four material witnesses were also arrested and they too were granted freedom on security.
