

FEW ROUMANIANS IN EDMONTON

The Roumanians in the city so far have not taken any steps to aid their countrymen in the part they are playing in the war against German activities. There are but few Roumanians in Edmonton and the surrounding district and these are taking a deep interest in the development of hostilities in the eastern theatre of conflict. It is evident that some of these may join their countrymen if the call for help comes from Roumania to them.
