

Twenty-five Austrians came in from Fort William on the Noronic today and left on the noon train for Copper Cliff, where they will work for the Canadian Copper Co. They were in charge of Arthur Dausantelle, an employment agent of Fort William.