

AUSTRIAN DERIDES KING; ARRESTED FOR SEDITION

Because he derided the king of the country in which he is living, Henry Warsch was arrested today. This afternoon he was arraigned in provincial police court on a charge of sedition.

Warsch is an Austrian and is alleged to have been making fun of King George and his efforts to defeat the German and Austrian armies. Some "friends" heard him and notified the authorities with the result that Warsch was arrested.

At first he took the matter as a joke, but later asked that a lawyer be found for him.
