

Two interned Germans have escaped from the internment camp at Lethbridge. As the guard took his departure before the Germans the explanation is simple. Escapes are pretty common. What's the reason?