

Appointment to be Made.

The appointment of a commandant for Fort Henry to succeed Major F. G. C. Campbell, who has been promoted to Lieut.-Colonel, has not been yet announced, but in all probability the new office will carry with it the duties of commandant and officer commanding the guard. Major Campbell has filled the office for the past two years. Now he takes charge of Queen's new Kiltie Battalion, and will commence organization immediately.