

ALIENS FLOCK TO TORONTO.

Registrar Attributes It to High Wages Offered.

Alien enemies from British Columbia, western Canada and Northern Ontario reached the city yesterday. This is an unusual state of affairs, according to Detective Murray of the Registrar of Alien Enemies' Staff, who accounts for it by the scarcity of labor and the high wages now being paid in Toronto.

Seven thousand are now reporting in Toronto.

PASSED THE THOUSAND MARK.

From eight responses to 300 circulars sent out Miss Church has received already more than $1,000 towards the fund being raised for "Women's Tribute Night." The last donation was $100 from the 45th Highlanders' Chapter, I. O. D. E.

SPLENDID CHOIR CONCERT.

The choir of High Park Presbyterian Church, under the direction of Mr. Edward L. Crawford, gave a successful concert in the church. The singing of the choir was particularly good in "Choral Sanctus," from Gaul's "Holy City," and in a special selection, "Jerusalem, O Turn To," by Gounod, while the church soloists gave a particularly pleasing quartette arrangement from the "Sextette de Lucia de Lammermoor," to the words "Now the Night in Starlight Splendor." By special request the choir and assisting artists have agreed to give the same program to returned soldiers in the convalescent homes at the Central Y. M. C. A. to-morrow evening.—(C.)

I. O. F. CONCERT.

The annual concert of the Toronto Hospital Board of the I. O. F. was held last night in the assembly hall of the Temple building and a large and enthusiastic audience showed by its applause appreciation of the splendid program. All the performing artists were members or companions of the order, and the concert was a very high-class performance. The artists included Miss Lina Craine, soprano; Mrs. A. W. Brown, soprano; Miss Lillian Dillon, pianist; William Moore, tenor; Harvey Lloyd, comedian; Will J. White, comedian, and Jules Braxill, monologist and pianist.
