

BROTHER WAS STARVING

The Globe (1844-1936); Jan 4, 1917; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail

pg. 6

---

BROTHER WAS STARVING.

Emmanuel Topp Tells Why He Sent Money to Galicia.

In the case of Emmanuel Topp, charged with trading with an alien enemy, which came up before Judge Coatsworth in the Sessions yesterday, his Honor reserved judgment. Topp acknowledged sending money to his brother, who had gone to his old home in Galicia, and who had written that he was starving.

---

A. R. MAN GIVEN A CHANCE.

Dennis Evans was allowed to go on suspended sentence by Judge Coatsworth in the Sessions yesterday afternoon on the charge of having stolen $25 from the Robert Simpson Company, where he was employed as a driver. He had taken some of the firm's money to pay his own bills. He tried to enlist, but was rejected as physically unfit.