

GERMAN-CANADIANS SHOULD BE WATCHED

They Do as Romans Do in Rome,
Declares Mayor, But Hearts
Not With Us

Winnipeg, Jan. 11.—A German is always a German, no matter in what country he may spend his boyhood or his manhood. Citizens of the civilized world who have gained the idea that Germans make good Canadians, or good Englishmen, or Americans, are laboring under a false impression. They are hurdling themselves at conclusions.

This was the message delivered to the Great War Veterans' associations, at the regular weekly meeting Tuesday night by Major Prideaux.

The speaker was strong, almost bitter, in his denunciation of the real spirit of "Canadians" of alien extraction. He urged that Canada should be on her guard against men posing as true Britishers, men with a German name, German parents, and German birth.

"The do as the Romans do in Rome," he said, "but their hearts are not with Rome and her cause. They do as Canadians do in Canada, they talk pro-Canada and anti-German, in pro-Canada and anti-German company, but the majority of them can stand careful watching."

Tuesday's meeting was one of the most largely attended and enthusiastic that the Great War veterans have held
