

No Trace of Soldier's Assailant Is Found

Police report no results in their search for the gunman who Wednesday shot and robbed Pte. John Kalkhoven on the Springfield road. The soldier's wound is slight, and he soon will be discharged from the hospital.

Police believe the man is in hiding in the city. Detectives are making a search of the foreign districts of the city for a man with the description furnished by the soldier, and owning a gun. It is unlawful for any alien to own a weapon. They hope to trace him by that means.
