

WERNER HORN MUST SUBMIT TO A TRIAL

German Who Dynamited a Bridge Near Vanceboro Loses Habeas Corpus Suit

(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Washington, March 6.—Werner Horn, the German reservist Lieutenant who dynamited the International Bridge near Vanceboro', Maine, in 1915, to-day lost his habeas corpus suit in the Supreme Court, in which he sought to avoid being tried at Boston for alleged transportation of explosives on passenger trains.

The court did not decide Horn's contentions that in a belligerent act against Canada his German army commission exempted him from American prosecution and made him punishable only by the State Department. The court said Horn's appeal was not authorized and dismissed it.
