

KINGSTON— Count von Sudow, an alien enemy interned at Fort Henry, is in the General hospital and is not expected to recover. He was a resident engineer on construction work for the Canadian Pacific railway when the war broke out. The count was one of the many aliens who made the mistake of trying to get out of the country. After his capture he was brought to Fort Henry.