

CANADA'S NEW DETENTION CAMP

The four hundred alien enemies who were transferred from Fort Henry are now safely installed in their new quarters. Kapuskasing Camp is the largest of any of the Canadian detention camps, and is said to be like a band of steel, escape being the next thing to an impossibility. The camp is located on the National Transcontinental line beyond McPherson, but the train service is for those carrying proper credentials only. "As to anyone riding the bumpers, that is also impossible, and as to anyone walking away — there is no place to go, as there are no settlements east, west, north or south for many miles, and a man would have little chance of getting to a far-away settlement. The camp has its schools, stores, homes and its own churches, which fact shows the gigantic nature of it.
