

JAIL FOR ALIEN ENEMY

The Globe (1844-1936); Sep 12, 1917; ProQuest Historical Newspapers: The Globe and Mail
pg. 9

JAIL FOR ALIEN ENEMY.

Steve Unrick, an Austrian, pleaded guilty in the Sessions, yesterday, to failing to register at the Registrar of Alien Enemies. It was suggested that as aliens are not being interned just at present, he was fined $200 and costs or three months at the Jail Farm.

Reproduced with permission of the copyright owner. Further reproduction prohibited without permission.