(Canadian Press Despatch.)

Yorkton, Sask., Oct. 6.—Bernard R. Thompson, Robert G. Miller, David P. Moon, Charles Rose and Fred Schultz, alleged I. W. W. agitators, yesterday were found guilty of contravening the immigration act by entering Canada without having first appeared before an immigration officer for examination, not being Canadian citizens, and fined fifty dollars and costs or one month's imprisonment. Recommendation was made to the immigration authorities to have them deported.

These men came from Grand Forks, N. D., last month, and, it is alleged, were well supplied with I. W. W. organization and other literature, and while working as farm laborers have been endeavoring to create discontent among various thrashing outfits by demanding higher wages.

FATAL FARM FIRE NEAR TILLSONBURG

Two Men in Silo When Barn Caught—James Hagell's Body Not Found

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Tillsonburg, Oct. 7.—One man was killed and another seriously burned in a fire which destroyed the large barn of Mr. Charles Holman, three miles east of the town, on Friday. It is supposed to have started from a spark from an engine while silo filling, and a strong wind fanned the flames. After the fire had been burning for some time it was found that two men were still in the silo. Mr. Holman's only son managed to get out with terrible burns around the head and face. The body of James Hagell, a prominent young married farmer, has not yet been found. He leaves a wife and three children. The whole season's crop was destroyed, and the loss is partly covered by insurance.

IF ANY WON'T WORK NEITHER SHOULD HE EAT

AT LEAST KITCHENER MANUFACTURERS WOULD HAVE ALIEN ENEMIES INTERNED.

(Special Despatch to The Globe.)

Kitchener, Oct. 7.—The Kitchener Manufacturers' Association has forwarded an appeal to the Minister of Labor, Hon. T. W. Crothers, soliciting his co-operation in dealing with a labor situation which is present in most of the larger cities of the Province. The appeal declares that there are large numbers of alien enemy laborers, Bulgarian and Austrian, who positively refuse to work unless they are paid prohibitive wages. In ordinary times, it is pointed out, the Government cannot compel men to work so long as they have visible means of support, but the local manufacturers think that under the existing conditions, when the Government is doing everything possible in the way of conserving labor, as well as food, there is no reason why alien laborers should be allowed to live on the tollers who are working overtime to produce more food, and they be consumers, and do nothing to help win the war. The Labor Department is asked to take immediate action regarding these aliens who refuse to work, and if they refuse to work when a fair wage is offered, that they be sent to an internment camp, where their food is regulated by the Government.
