Arrested by the city police during the week-end on the charge of being military absentees, James R. Gibson, Fred Shausky and William McColgan will come up in court this morning. Six men who were arrested by the city police Friday appeared in the city police court Saturday and were charged with failure to report under the draft law. Their names are Harry Kobleck, Wasy! Fedorowicz, Mike Krysko, John Skelly, Mondchien and John Elf. They were all handed over to the military authorities. John Elf was also charged with vagrancy. The charge was remanded pending the decision of the military authorities, on the first charge. Two men, Rudolph Wensel and Zigmund Burnol, were charged with being unregistered aliens. They were turned over to the military authorities. The third allotment under the first draft is due to report at Minto Street barracks this morning. The strength of the unit is now over a thousand.
