

DRAFTING ALIENS

Many Put Into Khaki for Non-Combatant Service in Manitoba.

WINNIPEG, June 11.—Aliens of military age are being put into non-combatant service of the Canadian army. The War Times Election Act, according to statements made here today, does not exempt them from non-combatant service. As a result a large number of them are being put into khaki because of the calling of B class men, and a number of aliens' exemptions were cancelled by local draft judges.