

DRAFTING ALIENS.

Are Putting Them Into Non-Combatant Service.

Winnipeg, June 13.—Aliens of military age are being put into the non-combatant service of the Canadian army. According to statements made here they are not exempt from non-combatant services. As a result, a large number are being put into khaki because of the calling of B class men, and a number of aliens' exemptions were cancelled by local draft judges.